Tomorrow is Valentine's Day.
Now, I do have a Valentine's, I have 2 actually, but one's in CR, and the other's in Ottawa! So It's kinda hard to do anything with them. Alexandra M and me were planing on watching Movies and eating Candy. What are you Planing on doing?

Valentine's day isn't my fave, but I love making things for ppl.

I have made crafts, as I do every year, for my class, and extra for the other students.
They are little way paper hearts. You cut out 2 hearts then sew them together leaving a little space.
Then you fill the heart with candy then sew it shut.
I made like 30 of those for my whole class. I can't wait to give them out.
We also do this game at school where the girls have hearts, like paper ones and the boys have to try to get the girls to <sup>take the</sup> take the heart.
