

March letter

April 20th

Hi!

So like you know, in march I went to Guatemala. I already told you all my stories and my trip home, which took 3 days.

I applied for my summer job at camp but wasn't able to go to the interviews because they were when I was away so now I have re-applied. I hope to get the job and work full time all summer. And get that dough. So now I'm just waiting to hear back from Saanich.

I'm super excited for this summer. I love camp so much!

Love

Samantha V. ♡
