

Hi Bill,

This is my august letter But it's sent in september, from the suite. Today was my first day of classes.

August was a little bit of work for me, during the first couple weeks, but the numbers were low so I didn't have as much work as the weeks before. It gave me time to start getting my stuff together. I had had a bucket in my room slowly collecting stuff for the past couple months.

But now it was getting school supplies, deciding what I needed to bring and what I didn't. I didn't want to stress Fran out too much. Then it was deciding on what clothes to bring. You'll see my set-up when you come.

Love Samantha ♡ (:
