

H) Bill,

Jan letter

This is my January letter.
OPPS. I sent the February one first.
January was just a month to get back into it. It was nice having you guys here for the day or two. I was nervous I would feel sick again but so far it's been okay because I guess now I am more used to the work load. I had some new, interesting and boring classes.
Two of them don't have final exams! Starting school in January, everything went by so fast. Projects seem so far until they're not. I ~~can't~~<sup>can't</sup> wait for summer!

Love Janatha & ☺ ☺ ☺
