

Hi Bill

Nov 28th

This is my october letter in November. A lot has happened since my last letter. Mostly just school work. Thankfully my program doesn't have midterms. But that means we have a whole bunch of papers and projects due. I don't mind projects and papers. Except when my computer dies on me. Now I'm out 100$ I didn't even have. I guess that's adulthood for you. unexpected expenses galore. And as you know I've been dealing with my mice friends. I was away for the weekend and had 2 traps set up and nothing. They didn't bit at all. I'm not impressed because I know they are alive and well. They are pooping on the pull-out couch. A cat would be an ideal thing to get! They would keep all of the mice out.

of my house. And it would be a wonderful "Companion" and a stress reliever. Frans' argument that Dad will be glad when the cats are gone is wrong, because he secretly loves them. And my cats are old so, and they are no longer my cats, they are Thomas' cats.
This week is my last week of school.
How exciting! I will be seeing you both soon!

Love
