

Hi Bill,

This is my January letter. This month has been an interesting one. It is internship month! As you know my internship is at the South Granville Seniors Centre. It is not a live in facility just a day center. My job there is the one that the summer student would do. So I planned 8 different out-trips for February and March, because my internship is over at the beginning of April.

The first week was really slow. My supervisor was still on vacation, and the center had been closed for a week or two. There weren't really any programs running so I spent that week getting organized. I organized my papers and found all the ones that I would be needing. SO it was a pretty slow week. That weekend I got pink eye so the Monday I didn't go to work. Tuesday my supervisor was back so I was able to get a bit more direction. That week I decided where all my trips would be to. That was hard work. The next week was me creative the trip booklet. that was also hard work figuring out the order and proof-reading. And even when we thought it was done more mistakes were found. It's a process. I will include a copy of my booklet. I have had to print so many on multiple occasions because everyone is taking them! And I made posters for all of my trips which are slowly getting put up around the centre.

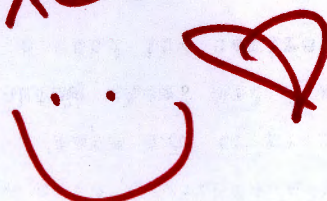

In other news, John is gone for 55 weeks in Mexico. Our Sunday dinner track record hasn't been great lately. Lisa and Aaron were gone for like 5 Sundays and now John is gone. We might try to change up the dinners some way, but I'm not sure how yet.

Denise and Reg are here sometime in the next week. I can't remember exactly which day they are arriving, but that means I have to do a little bit of cleaning. They will be here for about a week until the house in Victoria is ready.

Do you know when you two will be coming out next?

I had to apply for graduation so that's done now. Gosh I can't believe there are only 9 weeks left of school!

Love,
Samantha

XOXO
