

Hi Bill,

August letter

August 14th

How's the Vancouver life treating you? I'm missing the ease of access of things in Vancouver.

Everything is so far away here and long to get to.

My life has been SO EXTREMELY busy recently.

I work on average 6 days a week, about 40 hours.

Next week I think I work about 50 hours. I get one day off a week so I make the most of my days off. Yesterday I went to Animal Kingdom.

Today I work at 18:30-00:30 at the Candy Cauldron.

This morning I slept in and have been taking it easy. I might try to go to the park again in a couple days. Working at 6 gives me lots of time before work to visit the parks. The only downside is that I can never stay and watch the night shows because I work late. This means it will be hard for me to go to the Halloween party as they only happen at night on certain days.

I'll have to try hard to be able to go. It's so hard to try and get dates off. It's a weird system. You just request it online. And you get waitlisted and you don't really know if you get it off. I know that I have 2 days off when you are here. Another 2 days I am the 1st or 2nd on the waitlist.

Would you guys like to go to Mickey's not so Scary Halloween Party? It's extra money since it goes on after the park closes, but it's one of those events that only happens once a year. The rides change and there are special parades and it should be a fun time.

It's crazy how quick Disney can change overnight for certain events. Let me know if you think it might be fun to go.

Love Samantha Jones
