Hi Bill,

So I'm not sure if I sent you a december letter. I also realized I never gave you a renewal for Christmas.

Since you know a lot about my december I don't know what to write.

Consider this a renewal into 2019. I have no idea how many years we've been doing this, but to be honest, it doesn't feel like that many (even though I know it has been).

Love ☺
