

Hi Bill,

It's January 29th and I realize I have not yet sent you a card. It's been a busy month for me. My last day at Starbucks was the 21st. My first day at St. Stephens was January 23rd. Then on the 24th was my first day at fossil. I haven't stopped moving. Thankfully I got this weekend off and hung out with Matthew. In a couple days there comes out to visit. In my next letter I'll tell you both more about my new job, once I have more insight. Love to you both. ~~1~~ Sam ☺
