

July 28th

Hi Bill,

This is my July letter which I have smartly sent to the suite. It'll be hard coming up with something to write about

Since you are reading my blog, I put so much stuff there.

I leave for work soon. Today I am working at the Marvel store. Tomorrow I have the day off so I am going to go to the Magic Kingdom.

It rains here everyday. Sometimes for just a short amount of time, and sometimes all day. And there is also lots of Thunder and lightning, meaning that they are often shutting down

rides if the thunder is too close.

Before I leave for the park I have to go to Disney Springs Costuming and grab some more costumes for the next couple weeks.

485 July

I'm mostly in Candy Cauldron ~~and~~

When you all come, I want to take you'll to Epcot and the Animal Kingdom. I think those will be the two most exciting ones. Epcot you can walk around the world.

It's crazy to think I'll be 21 in a couple weeks

I'll be legal here. I work my birthday. I

Adult life. Can't wait to see you both!

love Jim & ☺
