

Hi Bill,

Nov 24, 2020

I'm not really sure what month I'm at. At least I'm not as behind as you.

I'm excited to be done school. That way I can start reading again!

I used to do a lot of YA reading. Those were mainly love type stories.

In my adult life, I realize I'm interested in mysteries. Some of my recent books have been: The Woman in Cabin 10; The Last Lie and And then there Were None.

Hopefully my next book will be Murder on the Nile. There is a movie version coming out in December so I'd like to have read the book first.

With winter break and my job coming to an end this week, I think I will have lots of time to get some reading done. Especially since my Christmas shopping is basically done.

Love

😊 Sam xoxo
