

Hi Bill.

May 6th

How's life? There's not a lot going on in my life at the moment. Since school is over I've been working. Not necessarily more. St. Stephen my hours hasn't gone up, and neither at Fossil. So I have more free-time, and it sucks that Mathew has been working more cause I don't really have any friends here I hang out with. I have some friends, but we aren't like that. The weather has been beautiful and I would love to have someone to share that with.

Today was Sunday, so it was dinner at Lisa and Aaron's. Wilma and Gary were there. John got a new car. His Subaru was dying so he decided to get a 2018 Toyota Corolla. ~~It~~ Know, crazy, right. John with a new car. If you haven't heard the story yet, you'll have to get it from him. I heard he told Fran to buy me a car for responsibility. She declined. I wouldn't expect anything less. You already let me live here rent free.

On the living note, I've got a question for you. My future plans aren't depending on it, I'm just inquiring into your thoughts. I've mentioned that Mathew and I were looking into moving in together. I've also told you my hopeful graduation schedule, I'd be in school for 4 terms ~~before~~ ~~and~~ I'm done, graduating by spring 2020. Hopefully. During that time, I've decided to only work at St. Stephens because it's manageable with my future school schedule. I make about 1300 a month at that job for 15 hours of work, which is the same amount of money I made at Starbucks for twice the hours. I like that cause it means I'm not going to freak-out trying to balance 3 jobs. But that also means not a whole wack of extra money. This leads me to my question. I know you and Fran are a few years from coming out. How would you feel, if Me, Mathew, and one of his ~~friends~~ moving, and taking over renting the place upstairs? We would probably be able to pay the same rent as they pay now. Tim and Paul have expressed interest in going to UBC, so if they decide to, maybe they could join us. I know Fran is worried about the state of upstairs, and I'd be happy to do ~~work~~ that might need to be done. To the best of my ability of course. The reason I ~~am~~ inquiring is because I know that we would not be allowed ~~to~~ move into the suite. I know my inquiry is a long shot, but this home is a prime location. It's right by Langara, and really easy for me to get to St. Stephens. It's perfect for now, and once I graduate I'll be able to look for a job in my field and hopefully higher paying.

If we don't have the ability to move upstairs, then I'll probably be out of here in a couple years time. If I'm allowed that.

I look forward to hearing what you might have to say.

Oh, and I got Fran's SKURB bins the other day. They'll be waiting here for you both.

Love to you both.
