

Hi guys,

Nov 12th

I just wanted another opinion. So I applied for my England trip and it's in August, near the end. Then this past long weekend I had my Evolve trip which I attend every year. There I learned coming up this summer was Rendezvous. It's a big conference and this year it's in Winnipeg. I wasn't able to go to the last one a few years back because I was travelling in Costa Rica. Now this year I really want to go. But the problem is these two events overlap a bit. The England

Trip sounds like so much fun. We get to sight see and it sounds like we are volunteering a bit. But Rendezvous is only ever few years. You can take a bus to Winnipeg with other people going to the conference and stop on your way to look at Giant things or parks. So I wanted to know if either of you had any insight. I mean I can go to England another time and I could see about applying for a different trip next year. But I don't even know if I'll get in. And I won't know till March. And the deadline for registration for Rendezvous is March. And registration for the bus is sooner. This rendezvous is cheaper.   Samantha
