

Hi Bill,

Sept 14th

So it seems I never sent an August letter, though I thought I had. August, the first week, I worked only two days. It was a long weekend so the numbers were low, and the reason I worked was because the person I was replacing was sick. Then on that Saturday, we headed off. You were there for that.

I have the news letter sitting in my room. You can have it. The trip was the best. The bus trip turned out to be so much fun. We did a lot of card games (president) and just hung out and laughed. You can read about it in the blog, which I am sure you did. Once I got home I worked at Lochside Park for the last couple weeks. It was nice having the break and going on the trip with friends.

Love
Samantha
